LEGGETT & PLATT CVP APPOINTS VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

ATLANTA, February 24, 2014 – Leggett & Platt Commercial Vehicle Products (CVP), an industry leader in manufacturing commercial vehicle cargo management equipment and providing fleet and OEM partner upfitting, has announced that Brad Wagoner has been appointed Vice President of Sales & Marketing with direct oversight of the Masterack and Crown North America divisions. Brad joins CVP's senior management team and will oversee sales for the divisions' national fleet account, distributor, public safety, and OEM integration as well as divisional marketing activities.

Brad joined CVP in July 2013 in the capacity of National Alternative Fuels Sales Manager bringing twenty-five plus years of corporate executive management experience with various automotive and truck component companies, both public and private. His specific focus has been in the Sales, Marketing, and Operational disciplines.

"Brad's experience and committed vision will compliment and extend our efforts to provide our Masterack and Crown North America customers with the best single source solution for complete supply chain management and total vehicle needs," said Ross Haith, President CVP.
